I. NEW BUSINESS

I.1 Council Member Motion: Victoria Response to Trump’s Trade War

Committee received a Council Member Motion from Mayor Alto and Councillor Thompson dated February 7, 2025 discussing the options and implications of the City of Victoria addressing the US trade war.

Moved and Seconded:

That Council:

1. Directs staff to report on options and implications of the City of Victoria addressing the US trade war, including for example:
 - a. Adjusting our policies where possible to avoid purchasing US goods and services;
 - b. Moving to other social media platforms, and closing the City’s X / Twitter account;
 - c. Continuing the City’s ongoing work in identifying and pursuing opportunities to diversify and strengthen our economy, particularly small businesses; and
 - d. Identifying any additional opportunities; and,
2. Voices its support for an all-government, Team Canada response to a US trade war, and calls on the federal and provincial governments to take any measures that would further increase the capacity of municipalities to respond effectively using procurement or other means; and,
3. Requests the Mayor to write to the Prime Minister and BC Premier to share these actions and positions.
