

“WRONGFUL CONVICTION DAY”

- WHEREAS the loss of one’s freedom due to a wrongful conviction is a major human rights issue that has far-reaching effects; and
- WHEREAS the pernicious effects of wrongful convictions, including but not limited but not limited to personal, social, and legal cost devastate individuals and societies as a whole; and
- WHEREAS wrongful convictions are serious miscarriages of justice that call into question the legitimacy, integrity and fairness of our criminal justice system, and unless corrected, undermine the trust of societies in their criminal justice systems; and
- WHEREAS it is important to inform the broader community on the causes, consequences, and complications associated with wrongful criminal convictions; and
- WHEREAS the prevention of injustice is a valuable service to the citizens of this community; and
- WHEREAS Innocence Canada (also known as the Association in Defence of the Wrongly Convicted) is a national, non-profit organization dedicated to identifying, advocating for, and assisting individuals who have been wrongly convicted of crimes they did not commit, while also taking measures to prevent future wrongful convictions through awareness, education, and justice system reform; and
- WHEREAS it is deemed desirable to designate one-day set aside for British Columbians and the public at large to recognize and pay special tribute those forced to endure the tremendous consequences brought by flaws within our justice system, and focus on and discuss the causes and remedies concerning wrongful convictions.

NOW, THEREFORE I do hereby proclaim Tuesday, October 2nd, 2018 as “WORLD CONVICTION DAY” on the TRADITIONAL TERRITORIES of the ESQUIMALT AND SONGHEES FIRST NATIONS in the CITY OF VICTORIA, CAPITAL CITY of the PROVINCE of BRITISH COLUMBIA.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand this 20th day of September, Two Thousand and Eighteen.
