Re: application for tax exemption for Fairfield United Church building

As you know the application for rezoning has been delayed several times leaving the church administration and business plan in limbo. We have been unable to retain community group rentals.

We have however by the generosity of the developer maintain our presence at 1303 Fairfield Road. We keep our office space and administrative staff there. It remains our mailing address. We also manage the occasional community rental that we feel we can honor given the uncertainty of our ability to use the building. The congregation continues to use the space for some spiritual practice and church council/committee meetings. We have many items remaining in the building as we sort the items, manage sales of items and viewing of item; as well as prepare items for storage, legal and archival usages.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact me.
