As a 44 year resident at 372 St. Charles St., I am IN FAVOUR of the Cannabis Retail store in the Fairfield Plaza. I have friends who use cannabis eatables, oils, etc for medical reasons to improve their quality of life.

An acquaintance has informed me that public feedback is being looked at with respect to the opening of a legal cannabis retail store located at the Fairfield Village Shopping Centre. Therefore, I am writing to express my support for the opening of this store.

As a neighbor in close proximity to Fairfield Village, I fully support a local legal cannabis retail store opening up. I think a cannabis store is appropriate for this location, which already offers a local pub and BC Liquor Store.

Sincerely,

A friend has brought to my attention that public feedback is being accepted pertaining to the opening of a legal cannabis store at Fairfield Village Shopping Centre; I strongly support a cannabis store opening at this location.

As a local resident who lives right near the shopping centre, I think it is appropriate that Fairfield has its own legal cannabis store, like other neighbourhoods around Victoria. Further, there are no legal cannabis stores in neighbouring Oak Bay, so it makes sense for Fairfield to have its own cannabis retailer to make up for this gap.

Sincerely,

Jordan Connell

To Whom It May Concern:

I understand from a neighbor that consideration is being given at city council for Pacificanna's retail cannabis store. As a resident of Victoria and with family in the neighborhood, I frequently visit the plaza.

I wish to voice my support for the applicant as I have no issue with cannabis use. As well, given the centre is noted as a 'large urban village' within the official community plan, it makes the most sense to include this type of use within the mall which already contains a large mixture of tenants.

Yours Truly,
