Dear Madam Mayor:

Thank you for your letter of congratulations on my re-appointment as Minister of National Defence.

It is truly a privilege to continue to serve our country in this role. Keeping Canada strong, secure, and engaged is my top priority, and I remain committed to supporting our Canadian Armed Forces members and defending our nation's interests at home and around the world.

Again, thank you for your warm wishes. I look forward to working with representatives of all levels of government to further the interests of our country.

Yours sincerely,
