Dear Madam Mayor:

Thank you for your letter congratulating me on my appointment as Minister of Employment, Workforce Development and Disability Inclusion. I appreciate your kind words of encouragement and support.

I am proud to continue serving Canadians in this new role and I am delighted to accept the challenges and responsibilities of this portfolio. I am eager to help Canadians acquire the skills they need for good quality jobs and to develop measures that will maximize their labour force participation.

Just as significantly, I intend to continue working with provinces, territories, municipalities and stakeholders to ensure we continue to work together to remove barriers for persons with disabilities in our society as we build a truly inclusive and accessible Canada.

Please accept my best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

The Honourable Carla Qualtrough, P.C., M.P.
