

Greater Victoria Housing Security and Rent Bank Program: Request for Funding

November 18, 2021

1

Purpose

To bring forward a funding request from the Community Social Planning Council (CSPC) for the Greater Victoria Housing Security and Rent Bank Program.

Regional Rent Bank Program Funding Request – November 18, 2021

2

Background

- On March 4, 2021, the launch of the Rent Bank pilot program was reported to Council.
- Council passed a motion that included the following:
 - 2. b. Report back on an as-needed basis if rent bank funding requests arise
- CSPC is now requesting $110,000 to continue the project (this includes $70,000 for the loan program and $40,000 to support the grant program).

3

Overview

Program feature	Disbursed since February 2021	CoV request for 2022
Loans provided through the Rent Bank	~$80,000	$70,000
Grants provided through the Housing Security Emergency Fund	~$349,000	$40,000

Ongoing advocacy and service navigation (operational)

4

Pilot Phase Summary

2021 Rent Bank Pilot Insights on Applicants

34% were households with children

Spending on average 71% of income on housing

46% were living in City of Victoria

- Half of renters in core housing need
- COVID-19 amplified challenges for renters
- Pandemic reinforces urgency of affordable housing as well as stop gap measures like rent banks

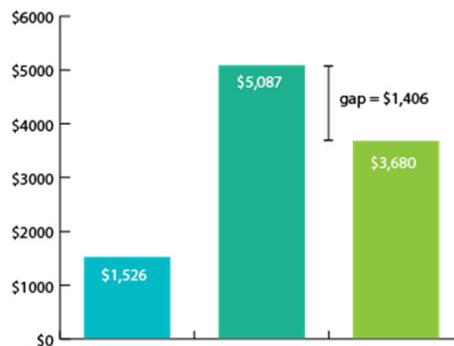

Regional Rent Bank Program Funding Request – November 18, 2021

5

Affordability Gap for Renters, City of Victoria, 2020

Source: VREB, CMHC and Statistics Canada 2016 Census of Population, via SPARC BC

- Monthly payment for 2 bedroom private rental unit
- Monthly income needed for unit to be considered affordable¹
- Median monthly income for renters (2015) (Based on median annual income of $44,165)

¹ Monthly payment equal to 30% of monthly income

Regional Rent Bank Program Funding Request – November 18, 2021

6

Next Steps

- Program funding ends in March 2022
- CSPC is working to secure new funding and to establish partnerships across the region
- $110,000 is being requested from the City, for 2022 fiscal

Regional Rent Bank Program Funding Request – November 18, 2021

7

Recommendations

1. Receive the following from the Community Social Planning Council:
 - a) funding request letter for the Greater Victoria Housing Security and Rent Bank program for 2022
 - b) summary bulletin of the Greater Victoria Housing Security and Rent Bank 2021 pilot program.
2. Consider approving the requested $110,000 for the Greater Victoria Housing Security and Rent Bank Program as part of the 2022 Financial Plan process.

Regional Rent Bank Program Funding Request – November 18, 2021

8