Plan Update

... does MMHI satisfy objectives for James Bay?

Objectives for Missing Middle

- Improve options for families to stay in the city
- Increase the supply and variety of ground-oriented housing
- Support car-light lifestyle, public transit service, and walkable neighbourhood centres
- Ensure look and feel of new development is a good fit, supports social interaction, and sense of place
- Support conservation and re-use of character homes
- Be responsive to BC Building STEP Code requirements
- Support a healthy urban forest

% Population vs. Household Size (2021)

2021 StatsCanada Census – First look at Data

What is Family Housing?

Families with children

- ground-oriented entry
- ground-oriented, or porch, outdoor space (dedicated or limited common property)
- preferably low street traffic (away from intersections)
- space for bikes and car (modo difficult with 2 car-seat need)
- space in home for baby carriage/other
- 3 bedrooms minimum (flex office)
- safe environment (important for all residential - but more so)
- accessible housing often necessary (and needs overlap)

Households without children

- housing where dedicated or limited common property outdoor space could be a deck at 2-storey height or higher
 - housing suitable for families with children
 - accessible housing often necessary (and needs overlap)

Priority for new housing:

... near employment areas and transport corridors east/west and north of downtown (minimize traffic through downtown)

Perception of MMH Initiative: Mixed messaging Promotional images – not quite right! In fact, wrong

Schematic circulated via social media states “yellow zones currently only allow for single-family dwellings”

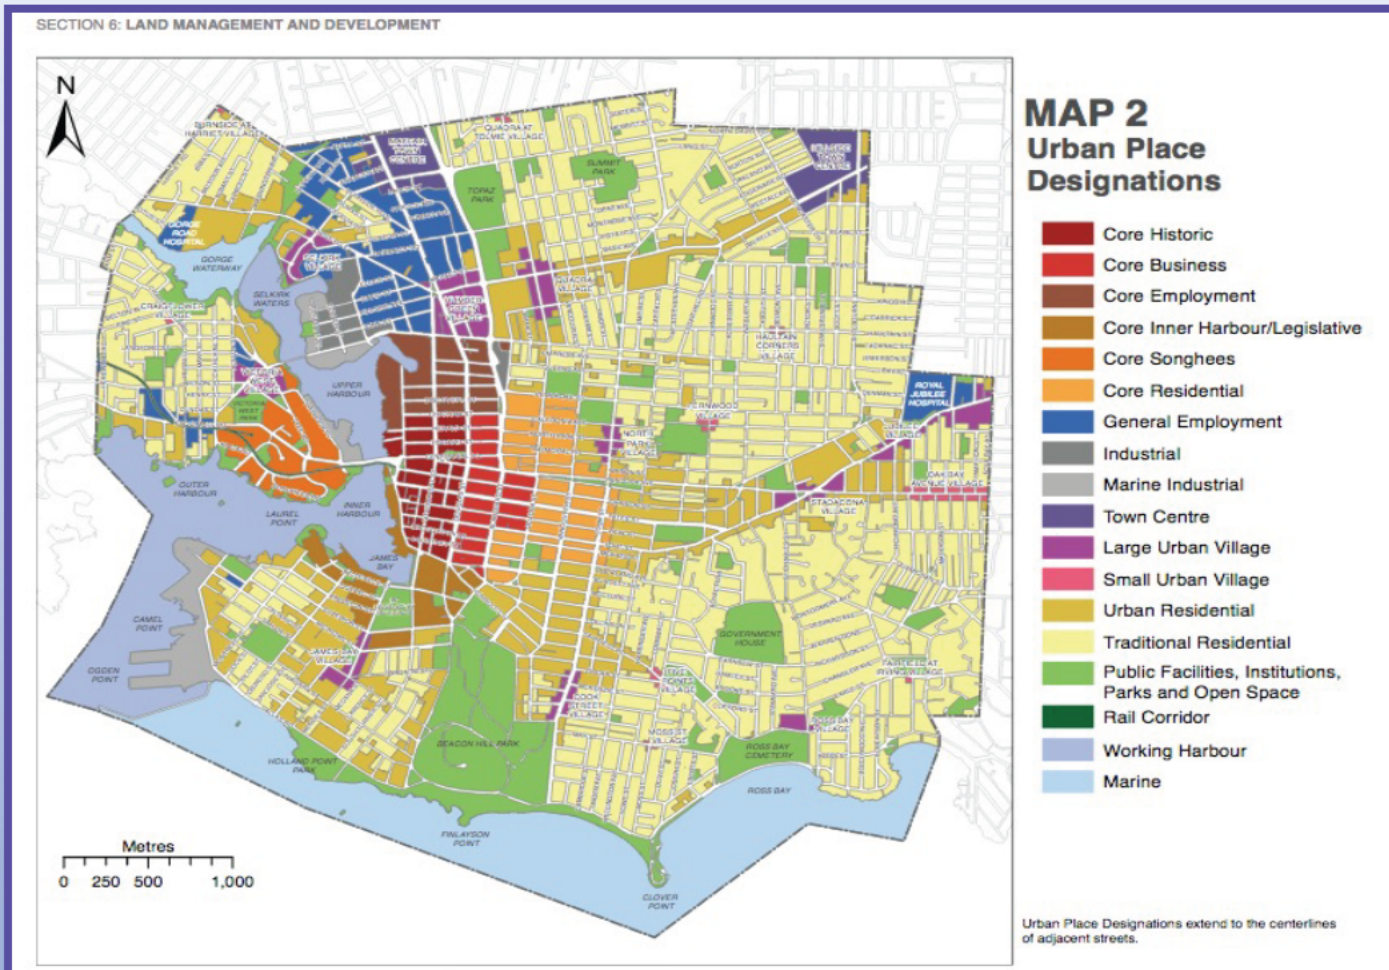

Definition and renderings of houseplexes varied

JB experiences with proponents stating City wanted houseplex - not positive

The yellow zones currently only allow for single-family dwellings. The missing middle initiative looks to change that. (Courtesy of City of Victoria)

Perception of MMH Initiative: The simplistic and Urban Residential supporting MMH Zoning not emphasized

Information needed to make informed position . . . what has not been promoted (current zoning density)

Almost all light yellow is JB is
R-2 and many flatted

Most residential housing in James Bay is within and beyond the density being proposed in the Missing Middle Initiative:

R-K Medium Density attached homes

R3-H high density

R3-L Low density multiple dwelling

R3-2 Multiple Dwelling

R3-B Bonus multiple dwelling

The one R-1 property which stands out in the CoV 2010 JB Zoning Map is R1-B for MacDonald Park.

2022 Draft Neighbourhood Plan Updates

Missing Middle Housing Initiative

DRAFT: Rec'd
July 11/12, 2022

- 4.8 Site 8: R2 (Two Family Dwelling District) to R-K (Medium Density Attached Dwelling District). Accepted.
- 4.9 Site 9 - (60 Dallas Road)
The existing zoning be retained and this site be considered in the context of the development of a future harbour plan which would eventually form part of the Official Community Plan.
- 4.10 Site 10: R-2 (Two Family Dwelling District) to R3-A (Low Profile Multiple Dwelling District). The rezoning is to be done on CRD ownership and to clarify the use of the site. A proposal for family residential development is a proposal for family residential development.
Please consult the Missing Middle Housing Policy, the Official Community Plan, and other relevant City policy and bylaws for guidance.
- 4.11 Site 11: R2 (Two Family Dwelling District) to CR-3M (Commuter Residential Apartment Modified District). This site is provincially owned and is part of the Redwing Harbour in the Accord. Any development should reflect the issues of streetscape on Menzies should include some residential development and should have commercial uses at grade.
- 5. Consider applications for rezoning for small lot single family houses or for new two family housing on their own merits and in conformity to the criteria already established by the City.
- 6. That Council review the conversion regulations contained in the Zoning Regulation Bylaw to limit the number of permitted units.
- 7. That Council review current zoning to prohibit Rest Homes in zones such as R32, R3AM and R3A.
- 8. Please consult the Missing Middle Housing Policy, the Official Community Plan, and other relevant City policy and bylaws for guidance.
- 9. Through Development Permit Areas, improve and upgrade select streetscapes by restricting any new development to fit in with existing structures.
 - a) Require any infill to be sympathetic in scale, design, form and materials to surrounding units.
 - b) Protect trees and natural vegetation that line streets.

MMHI – consequences and implications

Family Housing needed (at all income levels)

Implications of MMHI as currently proposed

Broken trust:

- Incomplete information
- Not full/appropriate consultation (IAP2)
- Applying 'blanket' zoning to different areas disregards current zoning and area needs and owner's expectation
- OCP no longer to be considered an agreement of trust

Other implications:

- Forcing owners into Strata governance
 - CoV staff positions: e.g. loss of need for waste collection
 - Loss of affordable housing (suites currently in larger houses)
 - Rise in property (land) values
 - Reduction in housing diversity – City needs R-1 and R-2
 - Threat to heritage era housing SIGNIFICANT in James Bay
 - Removes family housing zone (small lot)

Does MMHI satisfy objectives for James Bay? NO

Objectives for Missing Middle

- Improve options for families to stay in the city
- Increase the supply and variety of ground-oriented housing
- Support car-light lifestyle, public transit service, and walkable neighbourhood centres
- Ensure look and feel of new development is a good fit, supports social interaction, and sense of place
- Support conservation and re-use of character homes
- Be responsive to BC Building STEP Code requirements
- Support a healthy urban forest

(Not in any order and not an exhaustive list – tell us more!)

JBNA asks. . . Zoning and Housing

Family Housing needed (at all income levels)

but MMH needs a rethink . . .

Missing information

- current zoning maps
- current employment and population density maps
- population density if current OCP zoning realized
- transportation impacts
- MMH potential impact on existing housing street-by-street (e.g. types of MMH possible due to current housing lot sizes and locations)

Pilot project

- in neighbourhood near to employment centres

Rethink needs and MMHI. . after providing missing information and consultation . . . neighbourhood by neighbourhood(s)

Respect current zoning and JBNA and need for family housing

*It started with Gentle Density
3 homes on one property (strata or rental)*

3 households
Family of 4
Couple near retirement
Single adult
