Throughout November and December 2017 the City is continuing with early engagement activities with broader stakeholders. In addition to one-on-one meetings with businesses and property owners on the corridor, scheduled activities include:

- Corridor walking tours
- Public open houses
- Digital story boards and an on-line survey on the City's website
- Pop-up displays in City Hall and on each of the three corridors

Members of the public and corridor stakeholders will be alerted to consultation opportunities through:

- Newspaper and social media advertisements
- Email invitations, including through the Chamber of Commerce and DVBA list-serves
- Community Association invitations
- Door to door invitations

Engagement activities will continue in 2018 as feedback from stakeholders is received and designs continue to mature.
