

Site Options for the Lebanese Emigrant Statue

Purpose

---

The purpose of this report is to propose site options for Council consideration for the Lebanese Emigrant statue.

Background

The WLCU-BC Council submitted a letter to Mayor and City Council to gift a bronze statue depicting a Lebanese peddler to commemorate the arrival of the first Lebanese emigrant to British Columbia 126 years ago.

At the April 13, 2017 Council directed staff to find a location for “The Lebanese Emigrant” statue, somewhere in the City of Victoria ideally within the proximity of Victoria Harbour or the City’s waterfront and report back to Council with the recommended locations.

The Lebanese Emigrant Statue

Artist: Ramiz Barquet

Material: Bronze

Dimensions: Statue is 225 cm (7.38 feet) in height by 86.36 wide and 83.82 cm deep.

Criteria for Site Selection

Recommended Site Option #1: Rainbow Park

Located along the Songhees Walkway at the foot of Russell Street and extending to Robert Street

Recommended Site Option #1: Rainbow Park

Located along the Songhees Walkway at the foot of Russell Street and extending to Robert Street

Includes a picnic area and seating along the waterfront.

Accessible for pedestrians on Songhees pathway.

Does not have any memorials, artworks or commemorations at this site which would provide a singular focal point of interest for the statue.

Site Option #2: Centennial Park

Located along the Harbour Pathway off Belleville Street.

Site Option #2: Centennial Park

- Accessible for pedestrians along the Harbour pathway.
- Close to hotels and tourism amenities and attractions
- The site is in close proximity to the Morioka Bell and a plaque commemorating the park by the Province of British Columbia.

Site Option #3: Mary Street Park

Located along the Songhees Walkway at the foot of Mary Street.

Site Option #3: Mary Street Park

Located along the Songhees Walkway at the foot of Mary Street.

- Close proximity to waterfront
- Accessible pedestrian pathway along Songhees
- Smaller footprint within the park area

Recommendations

That Council approve Rainbow Park for installation of the Lebanese Emigrant statue, a gift from the World Lebanese Cultural Union.

Direct staff to create a Service Agreement with the WLCU-BC to ensure all funding associated with installation, as well as a donation of 10% of the assessed value of the statue for the ongoing maintenance to be provided by the WLCU-BC.
