The background image shows a vibrant waterfront scene. In the foreground, there are lush green plants and colorful flowers, including blue and yellow blooms. A golden lamppost stands on the left. In the middle ground, a paved walkway runs along the water, with several people walking. In the background, a harbor is filled with numerous sailboats and other vessels. The city skyline is visible across the water, featuring various buildings and a prominent church spire. The sky is blue with some light clouds.
